GUIDING PRECEPTS

1. Government has a critical but limited role in oral health and dental care, particularly for vulnerable populations.
2. Government programs can be made to work.
3. Government is responsive to citizen action.
4. Government is fraught with unintended consequences that can be limited through technical assistance.

CDHP'S STANDING WITH POLICYMAKERS: ROLE

Since founding in 1997, CDHP has become a reliable and independent source of information and policy formulation to Congress and Federal Agencies.

HOW IT HAPPENS: DATA

1. Use of Data

- Coverage
- Care
- Disease
- Consequences

- 2-3 times more children lack dental than medical coverage
- Young children with coverage are twice as likely to obtain care compared to uninsured children.
- Caries, though preventable is most common chronic disease of children affecting 44% of 5 year olds
- Oral health is consequential: young low-income children are twice as likely to have pain.

HOW IT HAPPENS: MESSAGING

2. Key Messages: "SCHIP Principles"

- Coverage
- Outreach
- Flexibility
- Public-Private Partnerships
- Reporting
- Prevention
- Integration

- Ensure pediatric dental care in SCHIP by (a) including dental care as a service required within well-child/well-baby care by defining in law that well-child/well-baby care includes pediatric oral health services; or (b) establishing a federal guarantee for pediatric oral health care within the "basic benefits category;" or (c) requiring that states "wrap" dental benefit around required well-child/well-baby care.
- Support ongoing outreach efforts to increase the number of children with health coverage through SCHIP.
- Allow flexibility and experimentation within states, while maintaining a basic standard of pediatric dental coverage.
- Provide funding for demonstration projects to foster public-private partnerships and other innovative programs that expand access to oral health services for low- and modest-income children.
- Improve accountability by requiring states to report on utilization of health services, including dental services, in a uniform, comparable, and timely way.
- Establish a grants program for states to develop oral disease risk assessment, anticipatory guidance, primary prevention, and disease management approaches for children enrolled in SCHIP.
- Ensure that SCHIP is consistent with other federal oral health programs including Healthy People 2010 Oral Health Objectives and Bright Futures Oral Health.
